SHATTERED WEST VIRGINIA MINE GIVES UP ITS DEAD

The Associated Press photo above pictures the scene outside the old MacBeth mine near Logan, W. Va., where 18 miners lost their lives when trapped underground by an explosion. The picture shows the canvas wrapped body of one of the victims being brought up from the depths in a mine car to be sent, feet first, to an ambulance. Rescue crews had to crawl more than a mile over steel plate and timber before they could place the dead in cars and have them hauled to the surface.

Fifth Week—"Faith and Hope"

FAITH AND HOPE AS PATIENCE

Saturday, March 13: "Let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith." Read Hebrews 11:32-12:2.

The Book of the Revelation has in its opening chapters a fine phrase about "the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ." Impatience and Christianity do not go well together.

The conscience of our time is deeply stirred by the evil, entrenched, corporate evils of civilization. We shall never rest until we get rid of them. There is, however, always the danger that in moments of hasty enthusiasm for reform we may sell out our spiritual birthright to some agitator who cares little or nothing for religion, but who is more than willing to make use of us for his purposes.

It is possible—personally I think it is probable—that Judas' sin was impatience rather than greed. His Master seemed to him to daily undo daily long. He therefore betrayed him in order to force the pace of history, to bring the reaching and vindicating legions of angels from heaven. If this be the fact we have here the classic example of the illustrated marriage of an impetuous religion to a fatal impatience.

Prayer: Help us, O God, so to combat the evil which is in the world that we do not fall its victims through our impatience, and so to labor for righteousness that our words and deeds shall not pass carelessly away, but may partake of the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ. Amen.

ZION M. E. CHURCH GROUP ENTERTAINED

Misses Anna and Martha Kaufman of the Richland road were hostesses Thursday afternoon to the Ladies' Aid society of the Zion M. E. church south of Marion. Mrs. Harry Seiter, president, was in charge of a business session. A program consisted of a reading by Mrs. Henry Maag, a vocal duet by Mrs. O. E. Goodrich and Miss Lucille Ruth, a piano duet by Mrs. Seiter and Mrs. John Wellinger, a piano selection by Mrs. Glen Romine and a vocal number by Mrs. Goodrich. Miss Mary Koll, guest speaker, talked on Mexico. Guests were Miss Ruth, Mrs. Nettie Hecker, Mrs. Esther Diehl, Mrs. Goodrich, Mrs. Romine, Mrs. C. Chapman, Mrs. Albert Ruth, Miss Lucille Ruth, Miss Hannah Kaufman and Miss Eva Barringer. Refreshments were served in a social hour. The April meeting will be held with Mrs. Seiter on the Richland road.

INSURANCE AGENTS IN SESSION HERE

R. C. Witherspoon, secretary of the Midland Mutual Life Insurance Co., talked on taxes as pertaining to life insurance and annuities at an agents' meeting this afternoon in the office of the Charles E. Schaad agency. Approximately 25 agents from 12 counties were present.

MARION Y. M. C. A. GROUP AT MEETING

Executives and members of the Marion Y. M. C. A. are attending the fifteenth annual meeting of the 12th annual young men's conference in Toledo. E. N. Hale, Y secretary, Wilburn Woessner, Paul Elsey, Woodrow Hartley, Thomas Chapman and Clayton O'Brien left Marion yesterday to attend the opening sessions and Clarence Lee, boys' work secretary, Willard Darter, Edward Melvin and Robert Ebert, left today for the conference.

PATROL CONDUCTS TRAFFIC CHECK

Approximately 400 passenger cars and 75 trucks were stopped during a four-hour traffic check conducted yesterday afternoon on state route 42 at Mt. Gilead, by state highway patrolmen from the Marion substation.

Two motorists were cited for alleged violations. They are Roy Stucki, 44, of Columbus, charged with operating a motor vehicle without a drivers license, George Morrison, 30, colored, of Middletown, charged with operating a motor vehicle with license plates belonging to another person. Both pleaded guilty to the charges at arraignment before Justice of Peace J. P. Benner at Mt. Gilead, and each was fined $25 and costs.

Patrolmen W. H. Hathaway and Leo Culbertson, members of the staff at the substation here, conducted the traffic check.

EMITAGE FUNERAL HELD

The funeral of Elijah G. Emitage, 95-year-old Marion county Civil war veteran, was conducted today at 2:30 p. m. at the Marseilles M. E. church by Rev. G. Yost. Burial was made in Chandler cemetery nearby. Mr. Emitage, oldest veteran in Marion county and one of the last two members of the 123rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry, died Tuesday night at his home two miles southeast of Marseilles.

BUCYRUS MAN FINED

Joseph McKinnon, 23, of Bucyrus was given a suspended fine of $25 and costs when he pleaded guilty in municipal court yesterday to charges of driving a truck for his own use with dealers' license plates and operating a truck without a chauffeur's license. He had been arrested by police Thursday afternoon.

AGOSTA QUARTET SINGS AT WESLEY

A quartet of young men from Agosta sang at the Wesley M. E. church recital service last night. Rev. Stanley W. Wiant, pastor, preached on "Living Our Lives for Christ's Sake."

"We lose our lives to find we give them up to Him for His sake and His cause. Rev. Wiant said. "Just as all avenues in Washington, D. C. lead to the capitol, so do all our other centers lead to a point in our lives. If we let Christ become master of our lives everything will point to Him. And just as we fully surrender to Him we must fully surrender to Him."

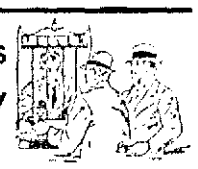
Milk boosts community income



In thousands of communities milk is the biggest single source of income for farmers. Trade operates in these communities largely on milk money. The total milk money going to dairy farmers daily is $3,500,000.

Milk needs many outlets. Selling milk in bottles provides a market for only ½ of the milk produced. Ice cream, butter, cheese, dry and evaporated milk and many by-products must be manufactured and sold daily so that milk money may flow back to the dairy communities week after week without interruption.

Since Gail Borden's invention of condensing milk in a vacuum 80 years ago, Borden has pioneered in research work that has meant new uses for milk and new markets for milk producers. Research and efficient merchandising of milk in all its forms are first-hand reasons why America produces and consumes more milk than any other nation.

NU-BACK

• Simply cannot "ride up" • Flattens the diaphragm and abdomen - - confines spreading hips • does away with crowding at the upper part of the body • keeps shoulder straps on the shoulders • controls back and thighs • prevents hosiery runs

If you're tired of "riding" foundations, listen to this! We had a model slip on this Nu-Back creation and then go through a veritable gymnastic drill. She bent, stretched, limbered and exercised (at our request) the most strenuous postures. Before and after, we measured the distance between the bottom of the foundation and her heels. At the end of this impromptu "daily dozen" there was not a fraction of an inch in difference. Nu-Back, once and for all, eliminates the "ride."

Moreover, Nu-Back's inner belt controls the diaphragm and abdomen, giving a completely flat effect. The flesh under the arms and shoulder blades keeps comfortably in place. Beautifully brocaded—with soft inward top.

Dicky Is Irked by Orders Given by Guide at Inn

THE BOY who had admitted us o the inn grounds resume o er o the car v le he had closed the gate behind u and jumped from the running board

If you'll d i e back until I tell you to stop he said I'll show you the way Better put it in first speed We'll have to go inch by inch after a b

There was a calm authority about him a he spoke which belied his apparel th o h l app ara ce and I quickly re ed m First impression of him He was not a boy but a singularly young looking man

That Dicky had no re ized his fi t impression I knew when he snapped out impatien ly What's the big idea? Dicky always reverts any show of au hority when he is on what I plan calls the receiving end and I knew that his choler had been increased by his frui tion against me because of the re gre able ep sode in which Allen Diane hau fi ured

Harry Disapproves

I saw Harry Underwood's b g shoulders tir ever so sligh ly and knew that he disapproved Dicky's question ho gh he would no make his opi ion vocal But the att tude of the young man on the run ning board remained impassive

Orde s he said laconically

Whose Dicky countered

Mr Perkins Ar body tha comes o here has to do as she says or else turn around and go right out again

Then w ll— Dicky began wrathfully but either the quick jab which I saw Harry s ibo give him or his own realization of the hing he was doing silenced him Har Underwood spoke q ckly

Presentiment.

It is impossible to be sure what happened in Columbus last night when Democrats met behind closed doors to decide on the course they are going to take in the fight for the governorship.

Apparently, as caused by certain local issues which endured through years of experience. One of these is that the Democratic party, because it is a coalition, tends to break up in the absence of a formidable opposition to make it stick together. Another, related to the first belief, is that Democrats get so much fun out of fighting each other as they get out of fighting Republicans.

The national Democratic party has been split down the middle again by the conservative-liberal issue. Previously, it had been shaken severely by the presidential campaign, in which new dealers found themselves opposed to certain old line Democrats in Ohio, it is no secret that Gov. Davey does not have the confidence of all members of his party, or that some of his political brethren gladly would do him out if they could.

It seems a poor time to have a presentiment of disaster right after a Democratic landslide, but the fact is that the party never has thrived on power.

Sudden Conversion.

Evidence of President Roosevelt's sudden conversion to faith in youth in the judiciary continues to pile up. Latest addition is disclosures by Franklin Waltman of the Washington Post that Mr. Roosevelt already has appointed more men over 60 years of age to district and circuit courts than any of his six predecessors, going back to Theodore Roosevelt.

He has appointed six men over 60 to the federal circuit court of appeals, three men over 60 to federal district courts and three men over 60 to judgeships in territories and insular possessions. Incidentally, two other district judgeship appointees had passed their 60th birthdays when appointed, and one circuit court appointee who was over 60 withdrew this name when the senate failed to confirm his appointment.

Mr. Waltman, who has been doing a good job on the judicial reorganization story for this paper, points out the President's selection of these men is out of harmony with his declaration that "modern complexities call . . . for a constant infusion of new blood in the courts, just as it is needed in the executive functions of the government and in private business."

Early suspicion that the age of certain members of the supreme court was being used as an excuse by President Roosevelt to change the court's complexion to conform with his ideas of the executive has jelled into later certainty that this is the case. Evidently, the President was not concerned about age until he needed a reason for attacking the supreme court.

Due to the fact that the nucleus of dissent to new deal legislation was built around justices who happened to be more than 70 years old, he selected that as the maximum age of eighteen. Under different circumstances, he might as easily have chosen 65, 60 or even 55 as the jumping off point.

Largest And Safest.

The current mood of thoughtlessness about traffic safety and the things which undermine it is a good background for considering the National Safety Council's claims of New York as the winner of the motorists' fool's fifth traffic safety award.

New York's problem is aggravated by its huge population crammed into a relatively small area, its streets are crowded, its pedestrians in a hurry and the automobile drivers just as likely to be a driver, any where else.

Yet, because the motorists' recognition these hazards, because safety-engineers have been encouraged to be practical, because the city is kept continually under observation by the unsleeping efficient traffic police arm, it was the safest place to walk and drive in 1936.

Many a smaller community with only a fraction of New York's record to aim at could find something to think about in the recognition which the National Safety Council has granted.

A Little Fishing.

A little fishing is on the President's vacation schedule the next few weeks. Fishing has a language all its own.

You plan where you're going to go and what you're going to do weeks and months ahead of time. You wipe and repair tackle. Finally you go.

The boat pulls out from shore—and it doesn't matter whether it's a rowboat or
